TERMS AND CONDITIONS

In submitting a response to this Invitation for Bids, vendors hereby understand the following:

1. All project participants, consultants, engineers, and contractors, must comply with all applicable federal, State laws and RIAC rules and regulations pertaining to contracts entered into by governmental agencies, including non-discriminating employment. Contracts entered into on the basis of submitted bids are revocable if contrary to law.
2. Alternate bids (two or more bids submitted) will be considered for award. RIAC reserves the right to make the final determination of actual equivalency or suitability of such bids with respect to requirements outlined herein.
3. The bids submitted, and any further information acquired through interviews will become, and are to be considered, a part of the final, completed contract. If there is any variance or conflict, the bid specifications, conditions, and requirements shall control.
4. Prices offered may not be withdrawn for a period of 30 days immediately following the opening of this Bid. Prices MUST also be free of federal, state, and local taxes unless otherwise imposed by a governmental body, and applicable to the material on the bid.
5. Bidder MUST return the original of attached Response Form to as noted previously on the bid due date.
6. Envelopes containing responses must be sealed and marked on the lower left-hand corner with the firm name and address bid number, date, and time.
7. RIAC interprets the term "lowest responsible bidder" as requiring RIAC to: (a) choose between the kinds of materials, goods, wares, or services subject to the bid, and (b) determine which bid is most suitable for its intended use or purpose. RIAC can consider, among other factors, such things as labor cost, service and parts availability, availability of materials and supplies, and maintenance costs of items upon which bids are received. RIAC can determine any differences or variations in the quality or character of the material, goods, wares, or services performed or provided by the respective bidders.
8. All requested information must be supplied. If you cannot respond to any part of this request, state the reason you cannot respond. You may provide supplemental information, if necessary, to assist RIAC in analyzing your proposal.
9. A purchase order and/or contractual agreement constitutes RIAC's offer to the service provider upon the terms and conditions stated herein, and shall become binding meeting the terms set forth herein when it is accepted by acknowledgment or performance.
10. After award, if the successful bidder/supplier refuses or fails to make deliveries of the materials and or services within the times specified in the Invitation for Bids, purchase order, or contractual agreement, RIAC may, by written notice, terminate the contract OR purchase order.

11. The supplier shall hold and save RIAC, The State of Rhode Island, and its officers, agents, servants/employees harmless from liability of any patented, or unpatented invention, process, article, or appliance manufactured, or used in the performance of the contract, including its use by RIAC.
12. Payment of the seller's invoices is subject to adjustment.
13. The Bidder agrees that:
 - a. He/she shall not discriminate against any person in the performance of work under the present contract because of race, religion, color, sex, national origin, ancestry, or physical handicap;
 - b. In all solicitations or advertisements for employees, he/she shall include the phrase, 'Equal Opportunity Employer,' or a similar phrase;
 - c. If he/she fails to comply, he shall be deemed to have breached the present contract, and it may be canceled, terminated, or suspended, in whole or in part, by RIAC;
 - d. If he/she is found guilty of discrimination under a decision, he/she shall be deemed to have breached the present contract, and it may be canceled, terminated, or suspended, in whole or in part, by RIAC; and,
 - e. He/she shall include the provisions of subsections (a) through (d) inclusively of this paragraph in every subcontract or purchase order so that such provision will be binding upon such subcontractor or vendor."
14. RIAC shall retain the right to reject any and/or all bids received, and responses to this and/or related documents, if determined to be non-responsive in any form, or if determined to be in the best interest of RIAC.
15. The firm responding to this bid proposes to furnish all materials, labor, supplies, equipment and incidentals necessary to provide the equipment/materials/services described herein in accordance with the, Addenda, Contract, Bonds, Insurance, Plans, Specifications, Mandatory Requirements and Conditions.
16. If a response to this Invitation for Bids is accepted, the Bidder agrees to execute and deliver to RIAC a contract in accordance with the Contract Documents (if applicable) within ten days of notice of the award to the Bidder. The Bidder agrees that the surety/deposit given concurrently herewith shall become the property of RIAC in the event the Bidder fails to execute and deliver such contract within the specified time. In the further event of such failure, the Bidder shall be liable for RIAC's actual damages that exceed the amount of the surety.
17. It shall be understood that time is of the essence in the bidder performance. The bidder agrees that RIAC's damages would be difficult or impossible to predict in the event of a default in the performance hereof; and it is therefore agreed that if the bidder defaults in the performance of the Contract Documents, the bidder shall be liable for payment of the sums stipulated in the Contract Documents as liquidated damages, and not as a penalty.

18. The bidder hereby certifies that he/she has carefully examined all of the documents for the project, has carefully and thoroughly reviewed this Invitation for Bids, that he/she has inspected the location of the project (if applicable), and understands the nature and scope of the work to be done; and that this bid is based upon the terms, specifications, requirements, and conditions of the Invitation for Bids and documents. The Bidder further agrees that the performance time specified is a reasonable time, having carefully considered the nature and scope of the project as aforesaid.
19. All products/services and related equipment proposed and/or affected by acquisitions or purchases made as a result of the response to this document shall be Year 2000 compliant with existing RIAC hardware, software, and applications where applicable. Verification must be provided in the response to this document.
20. The Bidder certifies that this proposal is submitted without collusion, fraud or misrepresentation as to other Bidders, so that all bids for the project will result from free, open and competitive bidding among all vendors.
21. It shall be understood that any bid and any/all referencing information submitted in response to this Invitation for Bids shall become the property of RIAC, and will not be returned. RIAC will use discretion with regards to disclosure of proprietary information contained in any response, but can not guarantee that information will not be made public. As a governmental entity, RIAC is subject to making records available for disclosure after Board approval of the recommendation.
22. RIAC will not be responsible for any expenses incurred by any vendor in the development of a response to this Invitation for Bids. Further, RIAC shall reserve the right to cancel the work described herein prior to issuance and acceptance of any contractual agreement/purchase order by the recommended vendor even if RIAC has formally accepted a recommendation.
23. RIAC will accept responses transmitted via facsimile unless stated to the contrary within this document. Bids must be received prior to the time and dates listed to be considered responsive. RIAC will not "accept" late responses and will return them to the sender. Further, RIAC will NOT: (1) guarantee security of the document received; (2) be held responsible for bids which are NOT legible (and may choose to reject such responses); and, (3) guarantee that the receiving facsimile machine will accept transmission or that phone lines are functioning and available for transmission. Submitting a response via facsimile does NOT relieve the Bidder of: (1) responsibilities stated in the document (such as attendance at a mandatory pre-proposal conference); (2) providing non-paper informational items which must be returned with the response (diskettes, large drawings, photographs, models, etc.); and, (3) providing original copies of bid sureties (bonds, certificates of insurance, etc.)
24. By submission of a response, the Bidder agrees that at the time of submittal, he/she: (1) has no interest (including financial benefit, commission, finder's fee, or any other remuneration) and shall not acquire any interest, either direct or indirect, that would conflict in any manner or degree with the performance of Bidder's services, or (2) benefit from an award resulting in a "Conflict of Interest." A "Conflict of Interest" shall include holding or retaining membership, or employment, on a board, elected office, department or bureau, or committee sanctioned by and/or governed by RIAC. Bidders shall identify any interests, and the individuals involved, on separate paper with the response and shall understand that RIAC, at the discretion of the Purchasing Director in consultation with RIAC Counselor, may reject their bid.
